

"Circulation Books Open to All."

cetorio.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

SWEARS HE IS NOT GUILTY

PRICE ONE CENT.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1906.

CARUSO GOES ON STAND;

Mrs. Bussa, Wife of Owner, Killed and Husband Fatally Injured by Jumping After Explosion in Celluloid Starts Fire,

300 OTHERS IN PANIC FLEE FROM BUILDING TO STREET,

Three Persons, Badly Burned, Attended by Ambulance Surgeons-Blaze Quickly Under Control, but Factory Is Wrecked.

One woman was killed, her husband probably fatally injured and three persons painfully hurt in the explosion and fire that swept through the five-story brick factory building at Nos. 314-318 East Seventy-nith street this afternoon. The explosion was caused by the igniting of celluloid goods in the factory of Bussa & Weiss on the third floor, and the fire following stampeded the 300 men, women and children working in the various factories.

ed from the third-story window, her clothing aflame. She struck the pavement and was picked up dead, her body rom a window, breaking his leg. His face, neck and hands were burned, and believed he inhaled flame. He taken to the Presbyterian Hospi-

Stern, cabinet maker, No. 350

tumped blindly, fracturing her skull and breaking an arm. Death was al-

Ambulances Called Out.

in the fire Mrs. Mislik reported frantically to the police that her husband-was missing. Later he was found singed, but otherwise unburt. The employees on all floors got out by fire excupes and the stairway. Many of them were ex-itedly preparing to Jump, when the firemen arrived and

WEATHER FORECAST.

Forecast for New York City and vicinity: Cloudy, with fog and occasional rain to-night and Thursday. Fresh east to south exst winds.

To Date!

1,268,208

214,381

MORE THAN THE HERALD OR ANY OTHER NEWSPA-PER ON THE FACE OF THE EARTH.

Results Count

DOORS OF "THE" ALLEN'S PLACE

One Hundred Men in Pool-Room When Police Raided It.

story window, screaming with the pain, the Mercer Street Station, who with a of the fire that enveloped her. She dozen of his men battered down the doors of "The" Allen's notorious poolroom at No. 80 Sixth avenue.

in the place at the time and there was Ambulances Called Out.

One alarm of fire was followed by a seemed to delight a vast crowd which and Dr. Cooke all for ambulances, and Dr. Cooke and Dr. Coo a scurrying to the windows which took it to the station with the pris

SCHOOLBOY KILLED BY NINTH AVENUE CAR.

Policeman Who Usually Was cess Anne County to day for alleged this evening. at Crossing. Absent

Harry Wulfhok, a ten-year-old schoolstreet, was run down and killed by a OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 21.—News was to Watkins Gien for the benefit of his Montort gathered in the opening FIFTH RACE.—Economy (7 to 5 Montort gathered ga t its way. Customarily a policeman stationed there, but he was missing

Owen Lynch, the motorman, was ar

BOY SAYS MAN FELLED HIM WITH A HAMMER

tion-Bail $1,000. Acused with having struck a six-yearold child on the head with a hammer, Charles Kriendler, a thusmith, of No.

further examination. Tirther examination.

The boy. Morris Rosner, of No. 3 Hill place, said he was pessing the store and as h did so picka up a small plece of tin. Then the owner of he shop, he alleged, ran out, struck him with the hammer and felled him to the street. He was rendered unconscious and was taken to the house of a neighboring physician until he revived.

He sustained a lacerated scalp wound and contusions on the head.

and contusions on the head.

TEN HOURS FOR ALL ON D. L.W.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 21.-Women of assault on Mrs. Mollile Leggett in Sep-NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 21.—Women of assault on Mrs. Mollile Leggett in Sep. Princess Anne County have raised a remain public protection fund and employed an attorney to appear in their behalf and seek the conviction of John behalf and seek the outsider, linear descriptions of the outsider, linear description of the John and Jo and in crossing the tracks the car bore night of Herman Kountze, the multi-down on him before he could get out of the way. Customarily a policeman millionaire president of the First National Bank of Omaha. He had gone I He leaves three sons and a daughter.

James J. Hill, President of the Great the relations which exist between the Charles Kriendler Held in Yorkville

Court for Further Examina
Commerce

Lane and Prouty, of the Interstate Commerce

Lane and Prouty, of the Interstate Commerce

Lane and Prouty of the Interstate Commerce

Lane and Prouty of the Interstate Commerce

Comme

MOTHER CAT BRAVES FIRE

173 Norfolk street, was to-day held in $1,000 buil in Yorkville Police Court for A gray cat was driven out of the cellar under the bakeshop of W. E. singed. She had a litter of two smal kittens in the cellar and made deter Cushman. No. 2163 Eighth avenue, talls mined efforts to get back into the cellar mined efforts to get back into the cellar single state.

HAFFEN IS VINDICATED.

The Commissioners of Accounts of the city have completed an investigation of the Berough of the Bronx and have the Evolutions in the Bronx, have not been sumade a report to Mayor McCistian. The

Fifth Day at Bennings.

GET BENNINGS PURSES

Nemesis Gallops Home in Vestal Stakes, as Does Firebrand in Fourth-Chevy Chase for Oleroso.

Nemesis won in a gailop by eight 2, Donna Elvira 3, banking business in Omaha before Net Foul race was for the place. Nancy, place) 2 Ambush 3.

treet to day.

The boy was on his way from school Gien, N. Y., of the death there has braska was admitted to Statehood and Donna Elvies and University forms.

SIXTH RACE-Agile (9 to 5 and 7 to 10), 1; Dainty (2 to 1 for place). 2; L. J. Hayman, 3, Reveral very interesting match contests were made, due to the introduction of the new poin setters now in use. Among the bowiers were Mobiled and Theory, the usual large crowd was in all characters.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 21.—Dominico Dolpe, forty years of age, of No. 53
River street, was crushed to death by an elevator at the Marine Engine Works in Harrison this afternoon.

Attorney Clarke, on the District Attorney Clarke, who was in the Adams Street Court to-day, said that the would present the case to the Grand Jury at once, ind announced that other Arrests would probably be made before he.get ihrough. H added that Mr. Baidwin, Lawson's lawyer, had offered him every assistance in working up the perjury case against Lawson's witness.

Carnso w time McCreated the bench.

Policeman Cain, was the first witness and said squeezed up to the bench.

Policeman Cain, was the first witness and said squeezed up to the bench.

Policeman Cain, was the first witness and said squeezed up to the bench.

Policeman Cain, was the first witness and said squeezed up to the bench.

Policeman Cain, was the first witness and said squeezed up to the bench.

Policeman Cain, was the first witness and said squeezed up to the bench.

Policeman Cain, was the first witness and leaving the convert was a called. He was questioned by commissioner whith the man was not even working in the crowd of the east missioner white actions the making merry there, in ageric in Central Park about 3.45 in the monkey ageric in Central Park about 3.45 in ageric in Centr

Woman, Who as "Mrs. Graham" Caused Tenor's Arrest, Fails to Appear at Examinaion to Prosecute Him.

ARMY OF LAWYERS AND BIG CROWD AT THE HEARING

Defense Surprised by Appearance of Jeremiah McCarthy Who Swears He Saw Incident on Which Monkey-House Arrest Was Based.

Before an audience that jammed Yorkville Police Court to the doors Enrico Caruso, the eminent tenor, appeared this afternoon in the role of a defendant in an action charging him with annoying women in the monkey house in Central Park. Counsel for Caruso begged for a private hearing, but Magistrate Baker said he classed the singer with any other person accused of disorderly conduct, and insisted upon the proceedings being held in open court.

the plea of his counsel that he could not speak good English his testimony was taken through an interpreter. As Caruso was sworn, Herr Conried announced that he would bring charges against Policeman Cain. Caruso denied the charge against him.

"Hannah K. Graham," the woman who made the complaint against Caruso, failed to appear, but the foresight of Policeman Cain in making out the complaint last Saturday enabled him to bring in testimony concerning others. In the complaint Cain charged Caruso with annoying took charge of the prosecution.

Judge Dittenhoefer, chief counsel for A As near as I can recollect It was till carried Ciruso It was till the bar where Caruso was standing monkey-house and 450 when I reach d Six I H RACE—Agile (9 to 5 and 7 to 10), 1; Dainty (2 to 1 for place), Judge Dittendugefer, chief counsel for a control of the Chevy Chase steepleonase, in the Chevy Ch

Caruso went on the stand in his own defense at 4.15 o'clock. On Caruso laque was out in force. Chief near the snake cage and started toward among those who were present to cheer them and them are the started toward. on their idol were Count Cocconi.

Count Magnoni and Chevaller Banta del Papa. There were head waiters, orchestra leaders, chefs and several who looked like barbers in the Caruso crowd.

Caruso reached court in a cab. accompanied by Herr Conrict at greaters the months of the control of the

By FRANK W. THORP.

(Special to The Evening World)

RACE TRACK, BENNINGS, Nov. 21.

The Vestial Stakes at Bennings this afternoon was practically no race. Steepens won in a gallop by eight.

Nemesis won in a gallop by eight.

Searfplin, dismond rings and other ration dismond rings and other ration dismond rings and other ration the administration in the court room the and with these young wontending in the court room that and administration is sucke eage and runbed his knee against scarfplin, dismond rings and other ration the surface of the world administration in the court room the nad with these young wontending and other ration in the court room the nad with these young wontending and other ration in the court room the nad with these young wontending and other ration that and out of the results and other ration in the name of the ration of the room the name and twent over and asked with the ration of the room the ration has discounted and other ration that the room the ration has discounted and the ration of the room that additional representation is a surface of the room the ration of the ration of the room thad a control to the room the room the room the room the room the

that he could not begin to tell with any

> the station.
>
> He was asked a number of questions Jeremiah McCarthy Called.